

Criteria 7.1.1: Measures initiated by the Institution for the promotion of gender equity during the year

❖ Girls' Common Room:

❖ Online Lecture on Women's Rights and Human Rights:

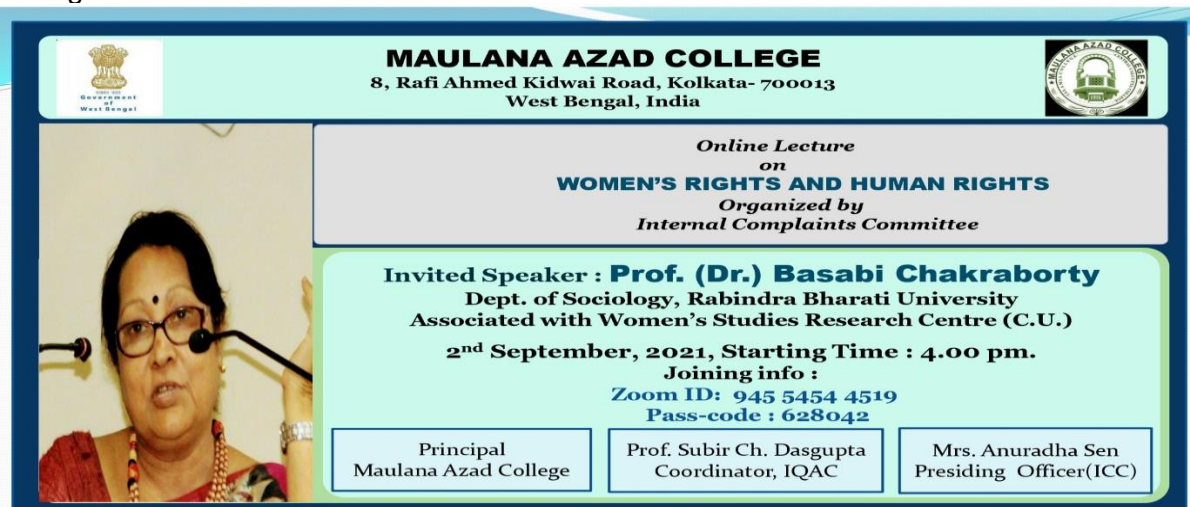

Webinar organized by ICC, Maulana Azad College, on 02.09.2021.
Speaker : Dr. Basabi Chakraborty.

The Lecture Session was part of the awareness campaigns organized by ICC at regular intervals to sensitize students about gender equality. The session was conducted by Prof. Subir Ch. Dasgupta, the then IQAC Coordinator, followed by a welcome address by Smt. Anuradha Sen, Presiding Officer, ICC. We were honoured to hear from Prof. (Dr.) Basabi Chakraborty, Teacher at the Department of Sociology, Rabindra Bharati University. She has been a part of Women's Studies Research, Calcutta University, for 15 years and her wide range of work focuses on women's position in society and their social, constitutional and human rights.

Her inspiring lecture on the day introduced and reiterated the concept of Women's rights, rights sanctioned by the Constitution of India and the need for women to be aware of and acknowledge their rights. She advocated for the use of Women's rights to empower themselves in the society.

There were around thirty (30) participants at the webinar. The participants were enthusiastic about the question-answer session and exchanged their thoughts and observations with the speaker.

The Session ended with the vote of thanks by Smt. Aditi Basu, Member, ICC, Maulana Azad College.

❖ An invited Lecture on Step towards Equality:

Seminar organized by ICC, Maulana Azad College, in collaboration with 'Agami' on 08.03.2022.

Speaker: Sukanya Kar and Debkalpa Basu

Organized on the occasion of International Women's Day, the Seminar was part of the awareness campaigns on gender sensitisation. The speaker Sukanya Kar, a social activist who was associated with "Swayam", talked elaborately on women's equality in the society and their empowerment to be achieved in order to eradicate the differences still existent in the society. She discussed past and present conditions of women in India and tried to trace the changes as well as the weaknesses of social outlook towards women.

The second speaker, Debkalpa Basu, a member of the NGO Agami, (having MOU with ICC, Maulana Azad College) shared her field experiences with the audience. She and her NGO have been working with the women victims of male and social atrocities for decades. She also presented a solo dramatic representation of women's suffering through the ages with poetic rendition.

There were more than sixty (60) participants present at the programme. Students both male and female also shared their experiences with the speaker and the audience about their witnessing these discriminations in the society.
