Dr. Gourishwar Choudhuri,
Department of Islamic History & Culture,
Maulana Azad College, Kolkata

Dear Dr. Choudhuri,

In confirmation of the talk this evening with Dr. Iftekhar Ahmed of Maulana Azad College and our Council Member, had with you, I feel pleasure in expressing thanks to you for having accepted our invitation to present Valedictory Address of a-One Day Seminar of young research scholars and writers of upcoming generation on "Maulana Azad: His Islamic Understanding of Indian Secularism" on the occasion to observe 63rd Death Anniversary of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, a patron and benefactor of the Iran Society, on Sunday, the 21st February, 2021 at 3 :00 p.m. at the Iran Society Hall.

The Iran Society was founded in 1944 by an eminent Orientalist, Dr. M. Ishaque. The Society - an international Centre of Education, Culture, Art and Literature, is a purely academic body devoted to the promotion of Indo-Persian studies and Indo-Iranian cultural relations through scholarly pursuits. The Iran Society has to its credit a good number of publications of research value which won commendation from Orientalists and Iranologists. Its journal, the "Indo-Iranica", has become a store house on Iranology and adorns the shelves of the leading universities of India and abroad including the library of the Oxford University.

Lord Wavell, Lord Mountbatten, Jawaharlal Nehru, Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru, C. Rajagopalachari, Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, Prof. Zakir Husain, Prof. Humayun Kabir and Dr. Pratap Chandra Chunder were some of the prominent personages who eulogised and encouraged the Society in its academic and cultural activities. It was entirely due to the efforts of Maulana Azad that our quarterly organ, "Indo-Iranica", flourished as the unique journal of its kind on Indo-Persian studies. Its services were praised by the Royal Asiatic Society of Great Britain and Ireland.

The Society had the honour of being patronised by Maulana Azad, Sir Jadunath Sarkar, Dr. Harendra Coomar Mookerjee, Dr. Tara Chand, Prof.
