

Bikash Chandra Dutta

Designation: Associate Professor

Qualifications: MA in Political Science from University of Calcutta

About Me: Bikash Chandra Dutta graduated from the Department of Political Science, Presidency College with Honours and completed his Post-graduation from the University of Calcutta, specializing in International Relations and Law. He entered West Bengal Education Service in 1981, and has been involved in teaching different courses in Political Science at the Undergraduate and Post-Graduate levels. He is an avid observer and commentator of political affairs in India and the world. He also engages in discussions on political philosophy with keen interest.

Current Teaching: Bikash Chandra Dutta has gathered 15 years of teaching experience in Post-Graduate courses while serving at Hooghly Mohsin College (affiliated to University of Burdwan) and Presidency College (now Presidency University). His area of expertise at the MA teaching level involves Political Theory, Political Sociology and Comparative Politics. He has 38 years of teaching experience at the Undergraduate level (Honours and Pass courses) and he teaches Political Theory, Comparative Politics, Indian Constitution, International Relations, Political Sociology and Indian Political Thought and Movement.

Research Interests: Areas of interest include Indian politics, International Relations, Political Theory and Political Philosophy.

Contact Details:

Email: bikash.polsc@gmail.com

Professional Memberships and Activities:

1. Bikash Chandra Dutta has served as Moderator at the Undergraduate level in the Department of Political Science, Presidency University, Kolkata.
2. Invited as Member, Board of Studies at the Department of Political Science, University of Burdwan.