To: Central Placement Committee West Bengal <placement.cpcbengal@gmail.com>

Dear All,

Greetings from Central Placement Committee, West Bengal !!!

This is to inform you that IBM India is excited to share their plan for 2022 Batch Campus hiring once again. As always, they look forward for your support to identify the best women technologists for IBM.

Here's attaching the complete details about the GBS Pooled Campus 2022 plan.

Please note that Those who have not yet applied for the same are advised to go through the details and register accordingly as per the given guidelines :

Calling all women technologists for IBM CodeKnack. IBM Code Knack is a National Qualifier Selection Process open to all placed/ unplaced students for Regular offers. Please note as our ongoing effort to transformation and virtual mode of hiring process, we have revamped and made changes to the graduate hiring program. This includes changes to the profiles along with the compensation and benefits.

Please note Institutions affiliated to your university will be eligible to participate in IBM CodeKnack. Institutions where IBM had already conducted campus hiring drive for Associate System Engineer role for 2022 batch will not be eligible to attend this event.
